For Sale : € 95,000

Description
A short distance from the sea, in the village of Gialia in the Paphos District, this sizeable field lies in an attractive setting among picturesque neighbouring villages. Most of the land is zoned for residential use, which gives room for a home, while a small part lies in a protection zone. The ground slopes gently and has an irregular shape, and the field fronts a road along one boundary, so it has direct road access. Village life stays close at hand: the centre of the village is a short drive away, and so is Ayia Marina Reservoir for time outdoors among the countryside. Paphos International Airport is about 40 km away. The sale is a 1/2 share of the field. Coast and village meet here, with residential land that leaves room to picture a home of your own.
