Description
Cafés, restaurants and the local shops lie within an easy walk of this pair of single-storey detached houses in Meneou. The morning coffee and the daily shopping can be done on foot, and Larnaca International Airport is close by, so arrivals and departures are never a long journey.

The two homes stand together on a sizeable plot of 1,194 m². Built around 1980, they offer about 179 m² of indoor living space between them, and covered verandas give you somewhere sheltered to sit outside and watch the day go by. Having two separate houses on one plot opens up different ways of living, whether that means family close at hand or room to spread out.

The land lies in a commercial zone, which allows for business use as well as day-to-day living. Schools are a short drive away, and so is Alykes Larnakas, the salt lake nature spot, for time spent outdoors.

Two homes, one generous plot and everyday life within walking distance make this an unpretentious and flexible place to put down roots in Meneou.
