For Sale : € 192,000

Description
Restaurants, cafés and shops in Pegeia are all within walking distance, and the beach at Coral Bay is a short drive away. On a single residential plot stand two houses, each with its own character, linked by everyday village life.

The older of the pair is a single-storey stone-built house dating from around 1950, with an open-plan living and dining space and a kitchen. Its stone walls carry the feel of an earlier Pegeia. Beside it, a two-storey detached house from around 2004 has a living room, dining room and kitchen on the ground floor, with three bedrooms on the upper floor. Covered verandas give it shaded places to sit outdoors.

Picture a morning coffee on the veranda, a stroll into the village for bread and a chat at a café, then an afternoon by the sea at Coral Bay. The older stone house and the newer family home share one plot, so both styles of living sit side by side.

The sale is of a 1/2 share of the property.

Stone-built heritage, a later family house and the village within walking distance make this a Pegeia address with real warmth.
