For Sale : € 399,000

Description
Shops and supermarkets right beside the building and the town centre of Geroskipou an easy walk away: this four-storey building sits in the everyday heart of the municipality, with Paphos a short drive away.

Above the ground floor and basement, three floors each hold a pair of identical two-bedroom apartments, six homes in all. Each one opens onto its own covered veranda, a sheltered place for a morning coffee or a slow evening outdoors, with the life of the neighbourhood carrying on around it.

Living here means the daily round is done on foot. Groceries come from next door, and a stroll into the centre brings you to its cafés and restaurants. The building stands on residential land in a residential setting, and has been part of the town since 1996.

The sale is for a 1/2 share of the property.

Six homes under one roof, each with a veranda of its own, and all of Geroskipou's town life within walking distance.
