For Sale : € 86,000

Description
Everyday village life sits right beside this residential field in Tersefanou, Cyprus, with supermarkets and shops next door and restaurants, cafés and a green park within walking distance. It is a setting with a strong local identity, where a slower pace still comes with real convenience.

The land is generous at 6,346 m², with an even surface and direct road access on two sides. Its residential zoning points to a home, and the source supports residential development or dividing the land into separate plots, which gives you plenty of room to plan.

Beyond the village, the surroundings reward exploring. Kiti Reservoir and the much-loved Panagia Angeloktisti church are a short drive away, as are the village of Kiti, a school, sports venues and everyday services. The Larnaca–Limassol motorway and Larnaca International Airport are also close, so the rest of the island stays within easy reach.

This sale is for a one-third share of the land. Level, well connected and set within authentic Cypriot village life, it is a versatile piece of Tersefanou with its amenities right on the doorstep.
