Cafés and restaurants sit right next door, and the supermark...

For Sale : € 103,000

Description
Cafés and restaurants sit right next door, and the supermarkets and shops of Chlorakas are an easy walk away. This upper-floor house puts the everyday life of the village on your doorstep, with the beaches a short drive off when the afternoon calls for the sea.

Inside, a living-dining room gathers the household together, with a kitchen beside it, three bedrooms and a family bathroom. The rooms are spacious, and air conditioning keeps them comfortable through the warmer months.

Outdoors, covered verandas and a terrace give you places to sit with a morning coffee or linger after dinner, in a residential setting close to schools, banks and the other services the area offers.

The sale is a 1/4 share, the one that corresponds to the upper house. A distribution agreement is in place for the property. What stays with you is the ease of it all: a home where a café, a shop and a stroll through the village are part of every day.
