Description
Village life in Pano Arodes sets the tone for this sizeable field in the Paphos district. The village centre is a short drive away, and the beaches at Toxeftra and White River Beach are within a drive when the day calls for the sea.

The land covers 6,697 m² on an inclined, irregularly shaped site, and it fronts a public road, which gives it direct road access. It is zoned in part for tourist use, a setting for a tourism-led project among the homes and lanes of a Paphos village. Another part of the land falls within a protection zone.

The neighbouring village of Kato Arodes and the town of Peyia are both a short drive away, and Paphos International Airport is about 25 km off, so the coast and the wider region stay within comfortable reach.

Picture the slope of this land in the life of Pano Arodes, with the village close by and the beaches of the Paphos coast within a drive.
