Description
Quiet village life sets the tone in Pano Arodes, where this field of 7,002 m² lies a short distance from the village centre. Houses and open parcels of land surround it, giving it a calm, beautiful residential setting with the rhythm of the village close at hand.

Most of the land lies within a touristic zone. The setting suits a permanent or holiday home. Part of the land falls within a protection zone. The field has a rather rectangular shape and a sloping surface. Along part of one boundary it meets a dirt road, so the land has direct road access.

Picture mornings in the village, with its centre a short drive away. Toxeftra beach and White River Beach lie a drive away. Paphos International Airport is about 25 km away, a welcome convenience for anyone travelling to and from the island.

A sizeable piece of land in a quiet village, with the coast within reach, offers a setting that rewards a closer look.
