Description
Pano Panagia, in the Paphos District, keeps village life close at hand, and this large field lies just a short drive from its centre. With 8,148 m² zoned for industrial use, it offers a business generous ground to work with, in a village setting rather than a crowded estate. The land has an irregular shape and an uneven surface, so any plans will need to follow its lie. Picture your workday unfolding here, with the village centre close by for errands, a coffee or a quick meal between tasks. When the day is done, the Kannaviou Reservoir is a short drive away, a natural spot to breathe out and enjoy the water before heading home. It gives working life here a calmer rhythm than a town can offer. A sizeable field for industry in a village setting, with the reservoir close by. See it for yourself.
