Description
Vines already grow on this residential field in Polemi, a Paphos village with strong local identity and authentic village surroundings. Neighbouring homes sit among open parcels, giving the setting a settled, residential feel while keeping a sense of space around you.

The land covers a generous 2007 m², with a neat rectangular shape and an even surface that make it straightforward to picture a family home taking shape here, in keeping with its residential zoning. It has direct road access, and the vineyard within the parcel adds a touch of rural character.

Daily life stays easy. The village centre, schools, supermarkets, cafés and restaurants are all a short drive away, as are neighbouring Stroumpi and Psathi. Medical services and main roads are a little further, and the Limassol–Paphos Motorway keeps Paphos town and the wider coast within comfortable reach.

All of this adds up to a well-proportioned piece of residential land, rooted in traditional village life, with its own vines already planted.
