Description
Set in the countryside of Peristerona, this agricultural field of 4683 m² is a versatile piece of land for farming or planting. It has a rectangular shape and a sloping surface, and it is reached by a dirt track.

The land lies in an open rural setting outside the village. Agios Isidoros, Pelathousa and Steni are a short drive away, as are petrol stations, and the main roads are within a drive. This is a well-proportioned field of agricultural land in the Paphos district.
