For Sale : € 48,000

Description
Village life in Polemi is close at hand from this residential field. The heart of the community is a short walk away, and shops for everyday errands are within walking distance.

The land is level, with an irregular outline, and runs along a public road with a long frontage, which gives it direct road access. At 2,342 m², it is a sizeable piece of ground. Its residential zoning leaves room for a home in the village, where a morning could begin with a stroll to the centre. Neighbouring Stroumpi is a short drive away.

The even surface makes the outline easy to read as you walk the land and picture where a house might stand. The village centre is near and the road runs along the edge.

The sale is for a 1/2 share of the field.

A level field with the village close by and its own road frontage makes a grounded starting point for a home in Polemi.
