Description
Set in an open countryside setting outside the village centre, this agricultural field in Stroumpi covers 8,362 m² of land zoned for farming. The ground slopes and the field is irregular in shape, so it suits planting or cultivation that works with the lie of the land.

Petrol stations and the neighbouring villages of Polemi and Koili are a short drive away. Main roads and the Limassol–Paphos Motorway can also be reached by car. Away from dense urban development, this Stroumpi field could also be a practical addition to an existing agricultural holding. It offers a generous area of uncomplicated, open farmland.
