Description
Three adjoining agricultural fields near Choulou, in the Paphos district, are offered together as one generous parcel of 17,059 m². The ground is irregular in shape and slopes across its surface, set in an open countryside landscape and zoned for farming and planting. The fields have no direct road access of their own.

The village centre is a short drive away, as are the neighbouring villages of Lemona and Kourdaka. A petrol station, the main roads and the Limassol–Paphos motorway can all be reached by car. This is a versatile piece of land with ample room for cultivation.
