Description
A sloping field in the Lythrodontas countryside, covering 2713 m² of open rural land in the Nicosia district. The ground rises across an irregular outline, giving the parcel a natural, landscape-led character away from dense development. The field has no direct road access. The village centre of Lythrodontas is a short drive away, and the villages of Vavatsinia and Kapedes are within a drive. The Nicosia - Limassol Motorway and its junctions can also be reached by car, linking the area to both cities. This is an uncomplicated piece of the Cypriot countryside, with 2713 m² of open, sloping land.
