Description
For Sale Residential Plot In Dali,Nicosia
Strategic Investment & Development Positioning in Prime Dali
Unlock an outstanding development asset with this premium, grand-scale residential plot, strategically positioned within a tranquil, highly sought-after, and beautifully established residential neighborhood in Dali, Nicosia. This property represents a top-tier acquisition opportunity, perfectly sized for private individuals wishing to construct an expansive, custom high-end luxury villa with sprawling outdoor grounds, or smart developers looking to build a premium residential project. Nestled within an orderly neighborhood canvas, this plot harmoniously balances peaceful suburban privacy with rapid, convenient proximity to major urban avenues, elite schools, and essential commercial infrastructure.
Generous Planning Parameters & Low-Density Architectural Profile
The plot exhibits excellent square-shaped geometries and high-efficiency zoning metrics under a premium residential planning zone, rendering it ready for high-yield architectural design and spatial optimization:
Total Plot Area: 856 sq.m. — Offering a substantial, highly versatile footprint perfectly proportioned for maximum architectural creativity, generous indoor layouts, and extensive outdoor setups.
Maximum Building Density (Building Destiny): 60% — Allowing for a substantial and elegant interior square footage allocation distributed across the floors.
Maximum Coverage Factor: 35% — Securing a highly desirable low-coverage structural footprint, which guarantees expansive remaining space for private swimming pools, landscaped gardens, large BBQ areas, and open-air entertainment verandas.
Structural Allowance: Maximum of 2 Floors with a total allowable structural height limit of 10 meters, perfectly suited for a premium modern detached residence or a multi-level luxury estate.
Complete Infrastructure Readiness & Legal Verification
Delivering a turnkey development baseline, the property bypasses long technical or structural delays and is fully prepared for immediate building application pathways:
Road Infrastructure: The asset benefits from immediate frontage onto a fully completed, officially registered asphalt road, guaranteeing permanent legal, vehicular, and pedestrian connectivity.
Utility Ready: The site is fully integrated within the modern residential utility grid, ensuring immediate connection access to public electricity lines, high-capacity municipal water networks, and fiber-optic telecom systems.
Legal Framework: Clear boundaries, neat topography, and high structural readiness provide absolute peace of mind for a smooth transfer and expedited construction licensing.
