Description
Two adjoining agricultural fields in Koili, in the Paphos district, come together as a single holding of 5,018 m². The land has an irregular shape and sloping ground. Its agricultural zoning suits farming or planting. It lies away from the village centre, which is a short drive off, as are the neighbouring villages of Stroumpi and Polemi.

The land has no direct road access. Together, the two fields form one sizeable piece of farmland in the Koili community.
