Description
A sloping agricultural field of 5686 m² lies in the countryside around Ineia village, in the Paphos district, away from dense urban development. The ground is inclined and irregular in shape. Its agricultural zoning makes it suitable for farming or planting. The land has no direct road access.

The centre of Ineia is a short drive away, as are the neighbouring villages of Drouseia and Kato Arodes and a petrol station. Main roads are within reach, and the Limassol–Paphos motorway serves the wider region. This is a generous piece of Cypriot farmland in an open rural setting.
