Description
A field on the market in Statos-Agios Fotios, Cyprus, set in open Paphos countryside a short drive from the village centre. The land covers 6021 m² of agricultural ground. It is irregular in shape, sloping, and has direct road access.

The land is zoned for farming, so it can be used for planting or cultivation. It would also make a practical addition to an existing rural property. The neighbouring village of Lapithiou is a short drive away, and the main roads and the Limassol–Paphos Motorway are within reach in the wider region. This is a versatile piece of farmland with direct road access.
