Description
Outside Ineia village in the Paphos district lies an agricultural field of 5,017 m² on sloping ground. It has an irregular shape and is reached by a dirt road. The land is zoned for agricultural use, so it suits farming or planting.

The village centre is a short drive away, as are the villages of Drouseia and Peyia, and the main roads are within driving distance. This is a sizeable field of sloping farmland in the Ineia area.
