Description
In the countryside of Pentalia, in the Paphos district, two adjoining fields are offered together as one holding of 4,684 m². The land has an irregular shape and a smooth, even surface. It has access from an unregistered road. Part of it lies in an agricultural zone, suited to farming and planting. Another part lies in a protection zone.

The village centre of Nea Pentalia and the village of Faleia are a short drive away, and the Limassol–Paphos Motorway is within a drive. Together, the two parcels form one even piece of land, sold as a single unit.
