Description
In Kedares, in the Paphos district, this agricultural field covers 3,028 m² of sloping, irregularly shaped ground. It has direct road access along one of its boundaries, giving a straightforward way onto the land for work and machinery.

Its agricultural zoning suits farming or planting. The village centre is a short drive away, and a main road is within a drive. The neighbouring villages of Mesana and Praitori are also close by. This is a sizeable piece of farmland with its own road frontage.
