Description
Set on sloping ground in the Paphos countryside, this agricultural field in Choulou covers 8027 m² of open land. Its irregular shape follows the natural incline, in an open countryside setting away from dense development.

The village centre is a short drive away, as are the neighbouring villages of Faleia and Lemona. Main roads are a drive away, and the Limassol–Paphos motorway lies in the wider region. The field has no direct road access of its own. Zoned for agricultural use, it is a versatile piece of land for farming or planting.
