Description
In the farmland of Kelokedara, in the Paphos district, this field of 6,689 m² lies outside the village. The village centre is a short drive away, and the neighbouring villages of Agia Marina Kelokedaron and Pentalia are also close by.

The land has an irregular shape and a sloping surface. Most of it is agricultural land, suited to farming or planting, while a small part falls within a protection zone. The field has no direct road access. It is a sizeable piece of sloping farmland in the Kelokedara countryside.
