Description
Set in open countryside within Amargeti's community, this agricultural field in Paphos District covers 6021 m² of sloping ground. Its irregular shape follows the lie of the land, and a public pathway runs along one boundary. The neighbouring parcels are undeveloped, so the field keeps an open, rural character. Its agricultural zoning suits farming or planting.

The villages of Axylou, Eledio and Nata are a short drive away. The Limassol–Paphos Motorway and a petrol station can both be reached by car. This is a versatile piece of agricultural land in the Amargeti countryside.
