Description
Set in the countryside around Galataria in the Paphos district, this agricultural field covers 10,703 m² of rectangular, sloping ground. Most of the land lies in an agricultural zone suited to farming and planting, while part of it falls within a protection zone. The field has no direct road access.

The centre of Galataria is a short drive away, and so are the neighbouring villages of Koilineia and Vretsia. It is a sizeable, regular-shaped piece of farmland in the Paphos countryside.
