Description
In the Galataria countryside of the Paphos district, this agricultural field covers 3,679 m² of sloping, irregularly shaped ground. Zoned for agricultural use, it suits farming or planting. A road ends at the edge of the field and a second road also leads to it, so the land has direct road access. The village centre is a short drive away, and so are the neighbouring villages of Koilineia and Vretsia. The Limassol - Paphos Motorway runs through the wider region. This is a sizeable parcel of agricultural land on an inclined site.
