Description
Set in the farming countryside of the Paphos district, this field in Galataria covers 8,696 m² of agricultural land. The ground slopes and the field is irregular in shape. It has no direct road access. The villages of Salamiou, Agios Ioannis and Pentalia are each a short drive away, in a landscape away from dense urban development. Zoned for agriculture, the land suits farming or planting, and could be a practical addition to an existing agricultural property. A sizeable, uncomplicated piece of agricultural land in the Galataria countryside.
