For Sale : € 85,000

Description
A stroll from the heart of Palaiometocho, this residential field sits within the everyday rhythm of a Nicosia district village. The village centre is within walking distance, so errands and an evening wander can begin on foot, with village life close at hand.

The land covers 2,110 m² of even ground in an irregular shape, and its residential zoning leaves room for a home of your own. Level land like this lets you plan a house around the way you want to live. The field has no direct road access.

When the weekend comes, the nature spot of Lefkovounos is a short drive away for time outdoors, and the shops, schools and everyday services of the area are within easy reach by car.

An honest piece of residential land, close to the centre of an authentic Cypriot village, with room to shape a home around the pace of village life.
