Description
Open countryside surrounds this agricultural field on the edge of Ormideia village in the Larnaca district. It covers 11478 m² of even, rectangular ground, a well-proportioned and uncomplicated shape with no awkward corners. The field has direct road access along one side, and the main road serving the area is within easy reach, linking the land with the village and its neighbours. The setting is rural, away from dense urban development. This is a generous, level field with a regular outline and its own road frontage.
