For Sale : € 33,000

Description
Village life with Nicosia within easy reach: this residential field for sale in Palaiometocho sits within the community itself, a short way from the village centre and its church. It is a setting with a strong local identity, where everyday life moves at a gentler pace than in the city.

The land is generous, regular in shape and has a smooth, level surface, an uncomplicated canvas in a residential area where a family home is the natural use. Schools, supermarkets, shops, restaurants and cafés are all a short drive away, as are public service offices and petrol stations, with medical centres and pharmacies a little further on.

Beyond the village, neighbouring Agioi Trimithias and the green outdoors of Lefkovounos are close by, while the motorway junctions put the capital comfortably within reach. Palaiometocho offers the authentic side of Cyprus without giving up the convenience of a well-served community.

This sale is for a 29/30 share of the field. A level, well-proportioned piece of residential land, rooted in genuine village surroundings.
