For Sale : € 10,000

Description
Parks and green spaces sit within walking distance of this residential land in Avgorou, a village with a strong local identity in the Famagusta countryside. Here is buildable land in Avgorou where a family home could take shape among authentic village surroundings, a short drive from the village centre, its cafés and restaurants, and everyday services.

The land has a smooth, even surface and direct road access, so getting in and out is uncomplicated. Residential zoning points clearly to its natural use as a home, set within the rhythm of Cypriot village life rather than resort or city living.

Daily life is well covered. Petrol stations, public offices and the community stadium are close by, while schools, supermarkets and shops are a drive away. Neighbouring villages such as Liopetri and Acheritou are within easy reach, and the Larnaca to Agia Napa motorway connects you to the wider island and its coastline.

This sale is for a two-fifteenths share of the land. It offers a foothold in a welcoming village setting, with green space on the doorstep and the authentic side of Cyprus all around.
