For Sale : € 95,000

Description
Livadia sets the scene here, with Larnaca town and neighbouring Aradippou both a short drive away. Within this setting lies a large field of 24,576 m², its ground even underfoot and its outline irregular, offering a no-nonsense stretch of land on the Larnaca side of the district.

Most of the field falls within an industrial zone, where business use is the natural direction, while part of it is agricultural land, suited to farming. That mix gives the land a practical character, with the larger industrial portion forming the heart of its appeal and the even surface making the lie of the land simple to take in.

There are points to weigh with care. The land has no direct road access. Water supply pipelines affect part of the field. The sale is for a 1/4 share of the field.

For anyone drawn to an industrial footing within easy reach of Larnaca and the villages around it, this sizeable piece of Livadia offers solid, level ground in a well-connected corner of the district.
