Description
A beautiful natural environment surrounds this residential field for sale in Gerakies, a hill village in the Nicosia district with the Troodos National Forest Park a short drive away. Greenery and village life sit close together here, and the authentic side of Cyprus is never far from view.

The field covers a generous 2611 m² in a neat rectangular shape. Its sloping surface follows the natural lie of the land, and its residential zoning opens the way to a home of your own in a landscape-led setting away from dense urban development.

Everyday needs are within reach. The village centre, restaurants and cafés, public service offices and a petrol station are all a short drive away, with a school and a bus station a little further on. Free days could mean a walk by Kalopanagiotis Reservoir, a visit to the heritage site of Panagia tou Moutoulla, or an unhurried afternoon in neighbouring Kalopanagiotis.

Generous space, residential land and the forest close by come together in Gerakies, a place to put down roots where the village and nature meet.
