For Sale : € 20,000

Description
Agricultural field for sale in Pera, set in an open countryside setting in the Nicosia district. The land extends to 6,689 m² and has a regular rectangular shape, which makes it straightforward to lay out for planting or cultivation. Its surface slopes across the parcel.

The field lies some way from the village centre, away from dense development, with the neighbouring villages of Analiontas and Kampia close by. Zoned for agricultural use, it can be farmed, planted or kept as a long-term land holding. This is a well-proportioned, uncomplicated piece of farmland in the Pera countryside.
