For Sale : € 6,000

Description
This field in Akaki lies in open countryside outside the village, in the Nicosia district. The land covers 21,425 m² in total. It has a smooth surface and an irregular shape, and a rainwater stream runs along one of its boundaries.

Zoned for agricultural use, the field suits farming or planting. It sits in a landscape-led setting away from dense urban development and would make a practical addition to nearby agricultural land. This sale is for a one-eighth share of the field. It is a plain, uncomplicated piece of Akaki farmland with smooth ground and a stream along its edge.
