Description
Agricultural land in Pedoulas: a field of 2342 m² set in a natural environment, a short drive from the village centre. The plot has a regular shape and a sloping surface. It is a versatile piece of land for farming or planting, in line with its agricultural use. It has no direct road access of its own. The neighbouring villages of Prodromos and Lemithou are a short drive away, as are petrol stations, and the main roads are a drive away. This is a regular, sloping field of farmland in the Pedoulas countryside.
