Description
Set in open countryside a short drive from the village centre, this agricultural field for sale in Platanistasa covers 1589 m² of sloping ground. Its irregular shape and inclined surface follow the natural lie of the land, and its agricultural zoning suits farming and planting.

The neighbouring villages of Fterikoudi and Alona are also a short drive away, with a petrol station close by. The main roads of the wider region, including the Astromeritis – Evrychou Motorway, link the area with the rest of the Nicosia district.

A versatile piece of agricultural land in the Platanistasa countryside.
