Description
Set in the open countryside of Platanistasa, in Nicosia district, this agricultural field offers 1580 m² of sloping ground for farming or planting, in line with the agricultural use of its zone. The land has an irregular shape and an inclined surface, in a landscape-led setting away from dense urban development.

The village centre is a short drive away, as are the neighbouring villages of Fterikoudi and Alithinou, with a petrol station a little further on. The field has no direct road access. It is a versatile piece of agricultural land in an uncomplicated rural setting.
