Description
This field in Saranti, Nicosia district, covers 892 m² of open countryside, only a short distance from the heart of the village. The ground slopes and the plot has an irregular shape that follows the natural lie of the land.

The neighbouring villages of Lagoudera and Chandria are a short drive away. Petrol stations and the main road network, including the Astromeritis - Evrychou Motorway, can be reached by car. This is a straightforward rural land purchase: a modest, sloping piece of countryside close to the centre of Saranti.
