For Sale : € 1,500

Description
With schools right next door and village life all around, this residential field on the market in Kokkinotrimithia, Cyprus, sits in a well-connected community within the Nicosia district. It is a setting where everyday life feels uncomplicated and close to hand.

The land has a regular shape and a level surface, an honest, practical base on land zoned for residential use, where a family home belongs. Neighbouring Paliometocho is a short drive away, and green spaces such as Gerogiannis add a closer connection to nature.

Daily convenience is a real strength here. Public service offices and main roads are within walking distance, while supermarkets, shops, cafés and restaurants are a short drive away. Motorway junctions are also close, so the wider Nicosia area is within easy reach without giving up the slower pace of authentic Cypriot village life.

This sale is for a one-ninth share of the land. Level residential ground in Kokkinotrimithia, with schools on the doorstep and the motorway close by, offers an appealing balance of location, function and village character.
