Description
Beaches lie just a short drive from this residential field in Argaka, in the Paphos district, a setting where the sea is never far from the day. At 790 m², the land offers room for a home of your own.

Zoned for residential use, it gives a clear starting point for planning a house shaped around how you want to live. Imagine mornings that begin with the thought of the shore close by and evenings spent coming home to a place you designed yourself.

For arrivals from abroad, Paphos International Airport is about 40 km away. A residential plot in Argaka with the beaches within easy reach, waiting for your plans.
