Description
This agricultural field in Agios Dimitrianos covers 669 m² of open land in the Paphos countryside, set away from dense development. It is zoned for farming, so it can serve as a practical addition to an existing agricultural holding or as a manageable piece of ground for planting. The village centre and neighbouring Kannaviou are a short drive away. A petrol station and the main roads are a drive away, and the Limassol – Paphos Motorway lies in the wider region. It is a compact, uncomplicated field of agricultural land in a rural part of Paphos.
