Description
A field of 2007 m² of agricultural land in Pentalia, set in the Paphos countryside away from dense urban development. The land is zoned for farming, which makes it a practical choice for planting, cultivation or adding to an existing agricultural holding. The village centre is a short drive away, as are the neighbouring communities of Nea Pentalia and Agia Marina Kelokedaron. The Limassol to Paphos motorway and its junctions can be reached by car, linking Pentalia with the wider region. This is a well-proportioned, uncomplicated piece of farmland in the Cypriot countryside.
