Description
Fterikoudi, a village in the Nicosia district, is home to this compact agricultural field of 790 m². Its agricultural zoning makes it suited to farming or planting. It can also be held simply as a piece of rural land in the village.

The neighbouring villages of Askas and Platanistasa are a short drive away, and the Astromeritis–Evrychou motorway serves the wider region. This is a modest, manageable plot of farmland in a rural corner of the district.
