Description
Authentic Cypriot village life sits right on the doorstep of this field in Lemona, a small Paphos community where the village centre and its church of Archangel Michael are only a short way off. It offers a chance to put down roots in a setting with a strong local identity, away from dense urban development.

The land spreads across a generous 4348 m², with an irregular outline and an even, smooth surface that is easy to take in at a glance. It lies within a residential zone, so the general use here is a home, set among the slower rhythm of the countryside.

Everyday needs stay within comfortable reach. Restaurants, cafés, schools and green spaces are a short drive away, as are the neighbouring villages of Choulou and Kourdaka. Supermarkets, a petrol station and the main roads are a drive away, with the Limassol–Paphos Motorway linking you to the coast and the wider district.

For anyone drawn to the authentic side of Cyprus, Lemona offers a close-knit community and a landscape-led setting, with a generous stretch of residential land at its heart.
