Description
This agricultural field in Lemona, Paphos, covers 8,863 m² of open countryside close to the village centre. The ground has a smooth surface that lends itself to planting and cultivation, though the plot has an irregular shape. Access is by a dirt track.

The neighbouring villages of Choulou and Kourdaka are a short drive away. Main roads, the Limassol–Paphos Motorway and a petrol station are all within a drive. It is a versatile piece of farmland with smooth ground on the edge of the village.
