Description
Set among the hills of the Nicosia countryside, this residential field in Farmakas offers a chance to build a home rooted in authentic Cypriot village life. Its 1933 m² give generous room to plan around, and the sloping ground follows the natural lie of the land, a setting shaped by the landscape rather than dense development.

Daily needs are within easy reach. The village centre, restaurants and cafés, a medical centre or pharmacy, a public service office and parks are all a short drive away, as are the neighbouring villages of Kampi and Odou. A school and a main road are a little further out.

The field has direct road access, though a metal safety railing runs along part of its frontage. Its residential zoning makes it a natural place to picture a family home.

The surroundings hold real character. The church of the Transfiguration of the Saviour is close by, while the traditional village of Fikardou and the walking country of Kionia and Papoutsa invite weekends spent outdoors. Here the authentic side of Cyprus is always on your doorstep.
