Description
Life in Pedoulas keeps an easy village rhythm. Restaurants and cafés are within walking distance, and the green expanse of Troodos National Forest Park is a short drive away. Here, a compact piece of residentially zoned land offers room for a home of your own in this village setting.

At 223 m², the land suits a modest, uncomplicated project: a home sized to its plot, with village life close by. Picture mornings that begin with a short walk to a café, and free days that lead out into the forest park, a welcome escape from the pace of city life.

Its residential zoning points to a home, and the setting gives that home a village around it, with places to eat and meet a stroll away. It is a small piece of Pedoulas, with the forest close at hand and the village table within walking distance.
