Village life in the Famagusta countryside sets the tone for...

For Sale : € 20,000

Description
Village life in the Famagusta countryside sets the tone for this level, rectangular field in Liopetri, an honest piece of residential land within easy reach of everything a household needs day to day. Schools, supermarkets, cafés and the village centre are all a short drive away, so the rhythm of authentic Cypriot village life is never far from the door.

The surrounding area adds to the appeal. Liopetri National Forest Park offers green space and walks a short drive away, the neighbouring village of Frenaros is close by, and Sotira and Ayia Thekla are a drive away. The Larnaca - Agia Napa Motorway is also a short drive, which makes the rest of the island simple to reach.

With its residential zoning and uncomplicated shape and surface, the land suits a home set among quieter surroundings and traditional village charm. This sale is for a one-third share of the field.

What stays with you is the balance it strikes: a level, well-proportioned stretch of residential land rooted in Liopetri's strong local identity, with village amenities, open countryside and the motorway all within easy reach.
